New Taxes

This can be a fun diversion especially in longer trainings.
Don't allow too long or people may become too serious!

Ask people to imagine they are a task force to change the tax structure of the country or city. They are free to abolish certain taxes and institute others. They should generate a list of which taxes they wish to abolish and which goods and services they wish to tax. (This is a "first impressions" activity - no need to establish the amount of the tax or how it should be figured).
